(The Purest Medicinal Agent ever known), has furnished the community a stimulant Pure, Healthful and invigorating at the same time a mild, delicious beverage. It is calculated to go away with the vile drugged stuff that is palmed off on the community, and which is injurious to body and mind. In addition to the certificates beneath, he has received a Diploma from the State Agricultural Society, and additional testimony from Dr. Jackson, of Boston, who testifies under oath to its absolute purity.

CERTIFICATES.

Philadelphia, Sept. 9th, 1858.

We have carefully tested the sample of Chestnut Grove Whisky which you sent us, and find that it contains none of the Poisonous Substances known as Fusil Oil, which is the characteristic and injurious ingredient of the whiskeys in general use.

BOOTH, GARRETT & CAMAC,

Analytical Chemists.

New York, Sept. 3, 1858.

I have analyzed a sample of Chestnut Grove Whisky, received from Mr. Charles Wharton, Jr., of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it, I am pleased to state that it is entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances. It is an unusually pure and fine flavored quality of whiskey.

JAS. R. CHILTON, Analytical Chemist.

Boston, March 7, 1859.

I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of Chestnut Grove Whisky, which proves to be free from the heavy Fusil Oils, and perfectly pure and unadulterated. The fine flavor of this Whisky is derived from the Grain used in manufacturing it.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY,

THE COMMONWEALTH. FRANKFORT.

Published by A. G. HODGES & CO.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1860.

Look at Them.

The Paducah Herald, edited by John C. Noble, and the organ of the Breckinridge Democracy in the First District, has been publishing some elaborate editorials in favor of the right of secession. In its last issue it boldly announces that "peaceable secession" is the "true jewel of the Constitution."

The Louisville Courier also maintains the right of secession. That paper is giving all the aid in its power to the disunionists and secessionists. Nearly all the remaining Breckinridge organs in Kentucky, if they do not openly maintain the right of secession, are discouraging, as far as possible, all efforts to place Kentucky right before the country. Every citizen must be forced to the conclusion that if the disunionists of the North and South have any allies in this State, they are unquestionably the leaders of the Breckinridge Democracy.

Has any citizen or collection of citizens the constitutional right to destroy the Constitution and the Union formed by that Constitution?

Annual Meeting of the Kentucky State Agricultural Society.

The Kentucky State Agricultural Society met in the Agricultural rooms in this city, on Wednesday, December 5th, the President, Col. L. J. Bradford, in the chair. The number of members in attendance was very respectable, when the inclement weather and other unfavorable circumstances are taken into consideration, being fully as large a number as we have ever seen in attendance, except when the Legislature was in session. The record of the proceedings of the last annual meeting was read and approved; the President read a statement of the financial condition of the Society, showing that the Society has means on hand amounting to about $5,000, in which is included the improvements made upon the Fair grounds at Bowlinggreen, and which the local society there have agreed to purchase, but as yet a settlement has not been made, and in consequence of this unsettled account, the Treasurer could not make a final and full report to the Society. R. W. Scott, Esq., Secretary of the Society, read his report, which was approved.

The Society then, on motion, proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year. Col. L. J. Bradford, of Bracken county, was unanimously re-elected President. The following gentlemen were unanimously elected Vice Presidents:

P. Swigert, of Franklin, for the First District; Dr. J. A. Tomlinson, of Mercer, for the Second District; Dr. David King, of Logan, for the Third District.

The following gentlemen were elected Directors, viz:

For the First District.—R. W. Scott, of Franklin; Abram Buford, of Woodford; O. H. Burbridge, of Bourbon; Wm. Warfield, of Fayette; George L. Forman, of Mason.

For the Second District.—Gibson Mallory, of Jefferson; W. A. Cooke, of Mercer; S. T. Drane, of Shelby; Geo. Denny, of Garrard; J. B. O'Bannon, of Jefferson.

For the Third District.—J. R. Barwick, of Barren; J. S. Phelps, of Christian; J. J. Towles, of Henderson; R. C. Harrell, of Union; Willis B. Maehen, of Lyon.

After some other unimportant business, and interchange of opinions by the members, the society adjourned until the annual meeting.

After the adjournment of the society, the Board of Directors met and proceeded to business, the President in the chair.

Mr. J. W. Tate was unanimously re-elected Treasurer. Mr. Scott declined a re-election as Secretary.

Before going into the election for a Secretary a motion was made by Mr. Drane to reduce the salary of the Secretary to $300, which motion was negatived, and the salary fixed at $500.

H. H. Gratz, editor of the Kentucky Farmer, and W. B. Wilson, were put in nomination for the office of Secretary, and Mr. Gratz was elected.

A proposition was received from Mr. Spratt, of Louisville, for holding a Tobacco Fair at his warehouse, which was accepted, and a committee appointed to superintend the holding of the said exhibition.

The Board resolved that they would receive propositions from local societies for holding the next State fair, until the next meeting of the Board, which is to be held at such time as the President may designate, and due notice to be given by him to all the members of the Board of the time of the meeting, as well as publication of the time, &c., in the papers.

After some other unimportant business the Board adjourned, to meet on the call of the President.

Would you Submit?

The late Breckinridge Democracy, who have done all in their power to "precipitate the Cotton States into revolution," now that they have almost, if not quite accomplished their fatal and hellish work, are in the habit of supposing cases which never have, and never can, in the present century, by any possibility occur, and then asking the friends of the Union, if they would "submit to that?" For one, as a friend of the Union, we unhesitatingly say that we are willing to submit to the Union as it is, to the Constitution as it is, and to the enforcement of the laws as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States; and we do not see how any man who loves his country can do otherwise.

Electoral College of Kentucky.

Wednesday, December 5th, 1860, being the day prescribed by law for the assembling of the Electoral College, the following Electors were present, viz:

For the State at large—W. H. Wadsworth and E. L. Vanwinkle.
From the 1st district—Q. Q. Quigley.
From the 2d district—L. A. Leavell.
From the 3d district—Wm. Sampson.
From the 4th district—W. A. Hoskins.
From the 5th district—Phil. Lee.
From the 6th district—Wm. M. Fulker.

From the 7th district—W. C. Bullock.
From the 8th district—John M. Harlan.
From the 9th district—John B. Huston.
From the 10th district—W. S. Rankin.

The College was organized by the election of Hon. Wm. H. Wadsworth as the Chairman, John M. Todd, Secretary, and W. R. Campbell, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The College then proceeded to vote for President and Vice President of the United States, and the Chairman announced that John Bell, of Tennessee, had received twelve votes for President, and Edward Everett, of Massachusetts, twelve votes for Vice President.

The College then proceeded to the selection of a Special Messenger to bear the vote of Kentucky to Washington City, and after several ballots had been taken, Wm. R. Kinney, of Henderson, was elected.

Messrs. Vanwinkle and Rankin were appointed a committee to deposit one copy of the vote in the post-office, directed to the President of the Senate of the United States, one copy with the Messenger, and one copy with the Judge of the United States Court for the District of Kentucky, who, after a short time, reported that the committee had performed that duty.

A resolution thanking the Hon. W. H. Wadsworth for the able and dignified manner in which he had presided over the deliberations of the College, was adopted, and then the College adjourned.

(Published by Request.)

HOPKINSVILLE, KY., December 1, 1860.

To His Excellency, Beriah M. Poyfitt, Governor of Kentucky: It becomes our painful duty to inform you, and through you the authorities in the several counties of the State, that the Western Lunatic Asylum was burned on yesterday. The fire originated about mid-day in the roof of the building, from sparks from a chimney in the west wing, and owing to the dryness of the roof, its combustible nature, and a violent wind which was raging at the time, the destructive and irresistible element baffled all human effort, with the means at command for extinguishing it.

In consequence of the lamentable disaster, we cannot now receive any more patients, and hope the authorities of the several counties will bear this in mind. But in the meantime we would say to those who have friends here, that all has been done, and will continue to be done that humanity and zealous attention can accomplish for their comfort and welfare. The patients, except such as fled into the country amid the wild scene of confusion and disorder attending the fire, were immediately moved to town, where the best care and attention that a hospitable community could give, was and is bestowed on them. We are now rapidly fitting up a temporary hospital, and hope soon to have all those friends removed from away, comparatively comfortable, but feel it our duty under the circumstances, to advise the friends of all who can do so, to remove them as soon as they can, as it will be impossible under existing circumstances to give so large a number that attention through the inclement winter months that their unfortunate condition requires.

Every possible effort is now being made to recover and bring in those who fled from the scene of disaster, and they are being brought in as rapidly as could be expected. It is feared that one of the unfortunate patients was consumed in the flames.

We cannot close this communication without tendering our sincere thanks to all the employees of the Institution, for their great, and in some instances almost self-sacrificing efforts in rescuing human life and property, and also to the citizens of town and surrounding country, for speedy and timely relief and assistance. The haste with which they repaired to the scene of disaster, and the energy and perseverance with which they worked to save the lives and render comfortable the poor unfortunate inmates, and to secure public property, are worthy of the highest commendation. And especially are we and the friends of the patients under obligations to Drs. Wheeler, Hart, and E. J. Vaughn, for their volunteer medical attention and assistance in waiting on and watching with the patients during the whole of last night.

We are unable as yet to give a list of the names of the patients that are missing, but hope soon to secure all that escaped. Most of the patients are now here and comfortable.

Isaac Stewart, from Butler county, is the only patient believed to have perished in the ruins.

MANAGERS.

"THE DEGRADED AND DISHONORED SOUTH."

—There are those in some sections of Kentucky who are continually prating about the "degraded and dishonored South," and who swear by all the saints in the Calendar, and by some not there, that they will feel degraded by living in a country that is willing to submit to the authority of the law, and allow a Republican President, elected by the people, to take his seat, and discharge the duties of the office. Now, if we felt as degraded as they say they do, we would sneak off into some lonely hollow, find us a good, strong grape vine, and end our days and degradation together, and become food for buzzards; and would not go about disgusting decent people by proclaiming our degradation and want of self-respect.

AN EXPRESSION OF UNION SENTIMENTS.—There was a "Union" incident at the St. Louis theatre the other night which "brought down the house." Mrs. Florence had sung and danced in sailor's costume, holding the star-spangled banner, which she tossed to Mr. Florence, at the other side of the stage. He took it, spread it out carefully, counted its thirty-three stars aloud, and exclaimed, with deep feeling, "Thank God, they are all there!" The house rose as one man, and the enthusiasm lasted several minutes.

CONGRESSIONAL.

XXXVTH CONGRESS—SECOND SESSION.

Wednesday's Proceedings Concluded.

WASHINGTON, December 5.

Mr. Green offered a resolution for an enquiry into the expediency of establishing an armed police force in the border States, slave and free, for maintaining a general peace and the efficient execution of the Fugitive Slave Law.

The credentials of Senator Baker, of Oregon, were presented.

Mr. Hale moved to reconsider the vote to print the President's message, and made a speech attacking it as failing to look the secession movement in the face.

Mr. Brown said: "If you of the North will go to the right, we will go to the left, and vice versa."

Mr. Iverson: "The States withdrawing disclaim any further allegiance. We intend to go out of the Union before the 4th of March, peaceably if we can, forcibly if we must. Five States will go out and Arkansas and Louisiana will call conventions pretty soon."

Mr. Wigfall thought that the President would precipitate the measure he intended to avoid.

Mr. Saulsbury, of Delaware, said that his State, having been the first to adopt the Constitution, would be the last to do any act or countenance any calculated or having a tendency to lead to a separation of the States.

[Applause.] Adjourned.

House.—The House, by a vote of sixty-eight against one hundred and twenty-five, refused to lay on the table Mr. Grow's motion to reconsider the vote by which the Committee on Agriculture's Homestead Bill was last session referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The House then reconsidered the vote. The Bill was then brought up for action.

Mr. Grow desired to discuss this measure, the principle involved having been familiar to the country for the past ten years. This bill avoids the prominent objections in President Buchanan's veto message. It does not propose to donate lands, but requires payment of $10 per 100 acres. He might, if necessary, quote Jackson against Buchanan, to show that the former was of the opinion that the public lands should not be a source of federal revenue. He moved the previous question, under which operation the bill passed—132 against 76.

After some debate on other matters, the House went into committee and considered the Military Academy bill, which, as well as the Pension bill, was passed. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.

Senate.—The Senate assembled at noon. A prayer was offered up.

Mr. Fugh appeared and took his seat. The Journal was read.

Mr. Hale moved that a number of volumes be published in relation to the Pacific Railroad, for the use of the Senate.

Mr. Powell moved the reference of the President's message, so far as it relates to the present political affairs of the country, to a special committee.

House.—Mr. Sherman, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill making appropriations for the payment of invalid and other pensions; also a bill for the support of the West Point Military Academy, which were referred to the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union.

RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 4.

The following is a special dispatch to the New York Times:

The President's message was received here this evening, and created a great sensation on account of the President's views and intentions regarding secession. It goes very much against the inclinations of the disunionists, who aver that they ought to be allowed to secede peaceably if they can. Some are of the opinion that the President's instructions to the Commander at Fort Moultrie will cause a great deal of trouble, and serious apprehensions are entertained with regard to it, but this is altogether an idle conjecture; public opinion is not yet made up in regard to the matter. The conservatives consider the President's message a cunning production.

I learn that Hon. J. M. Botts has written a long letter setting forth his scheme for settling the slavery question. It is an entirely original scheme, and if adopted will give satisfaction to both North and South. It is anxiously looked for by the Republic.

A grand mass meeting, irrespective of party, will take place next Thursday at Lynchburg.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.

The President's message is condemned by the extremists from both North and South, while the conservative members, including those from the border slave States, approve, in the main, the general principles enunciated.

Among the arrivals to-day are Representatives Crawford of Ga., Regan of Texas, Landrum of La., Barksdale of Miss.

Mr. Morris of Ill. will to-morrow, again endeavor to introduce and obtain a vote on his Union resolution read in the House to-day.

Advance copies of the President's message were sent as far South as Charleston, S. C.

He Talks Like a Sensible Man.

Hon. Albert Rusk, at the present time a Representative in Congress from the State of Arkansas, and at one time a candidate for United States Senate, which position he now declines to occupy, was recently addressed by a number of the members of the Legislature of that State, asking his views upon the state of the country. The following sound, sensible and manly extract is taken from his reply. He writes and talks like a man of sense and patriotism:

I believe, first, that from the adoption of the Federal Constitution to the present moment, the Southern people have never had less cause to complain of our government and threaten its overthrow, than they now have. If the most experienced and enlightened statesmen of other countries could witness the universal prosperity enjoyed by the people of our own, and at the same time, the fear, if not the conviction—which is almost as universal—that the government of which we owe so much of it, is on the brink of disruption, they would be driven to the conclusion that a general lunacy had seized upon the minds of the American people.

I recognize the election of Mr. Lincoln, by less, perhaps, than one-third of the votes of the United States, aided by the intrigues of Southern disunionists, as no justification for a thought of revolution. Elected under the forms of the Constitution, those who would resist or defeat by force his inauguration, would commit the highest crime known to our laws. No one who has read the debates upon the Constitution and the contemporary political history of our country, will maintain, I presume, the constitutionality of a State to secede from the Union. Such a pretension is, in my opinion, an insult to the memories of the wise and patriotic sages who framed the Constitution.

Our first remedy, under a federal aggression, in the case of the Missouri Compromise, which was pronounced by the Supreme Court of the United States a nullity, is an appeal to this same court. This failing, my only resort is revolution. To this, whenever an aggression is attempted by the Federal Government, I am ready to commit myself.

Whatever moral influence I may be able to exert, will be in favor of the inauguration of the elected President, and the enforcement of the constitutional laws of the United States, after his election.

In conclusion, I will say, that all I am, and have, and hope for, are identified with my adopted State, and I am ready to involve them in her destinies.

I believe that if the opinions and wishes of nine-tenths of the people of Arkansas are reflected by her representatives at Little Rock, and in Washington, her course in the present political crisis will be temperate and conservative. If I should be mistaken, and in opposition to my humble but honest and earnest counsels and remonstrances, her action through her constituted authorities carrying out the will of her people, should be different, I will yield to it a mournful acquiescence.

Respectfully, your obedient servant.

A. RUST.

A Yankee Courtship.

Well, you see, after the "poker" scrape, me and Sal got along middlin' well for some time, till I made up my mind to fetch things to a head, for I loved her harder and harder every day, and I had an idea she had a sorter sneaking kindness for me, but how to dew the thing up right pestered me orful. I got some love books and red how fellers got down on their marrow bones and talked like parrots, and the gals would go into a sort of trance, and then how they would gently fall into a feller's arms, but some how that way didn't suit my notion. I asked marm how had courted her, but she said it had been so long that she'd forgot all about it. (Uncle Joe allers says marm done all the courtin'). At last I made up my mind to go it blind, for this thing was fairly consuming my innards. So I got over to her daddy's, and when I got there I sot like a fool, thinking how I should begin. Sal she seed sumthin' was a troublin' me, and sez she:—

"Ain't you sick, Peter?"

For you tew keep it from a body, for a innerd sorer is a consuming fire." She sed this, she did, the dear, sly creeter. She noed what was the matter all the time, mity well, and was just a tryin' n to fish it out; but I was gone so far I didn't see the pint. At last I kinder sorter gulped down the lump as was raising in my throat, and sez I:—

"Sal, does you luv everybody?"

"Well," sez she, "thar's dad and marm, and (countin' her fingers all the time, with her eyes sorters shut, like a feller shootin' off a gun, thar's old Pide (that were an old cow of hern). I can't think of anything else just now," sez she. Now this wur orful for a feller in luv, so arter a while I tries another shute. Sez I:—

"Sal, I'm powerful lonesome to hum, and I sumtimes think if I only had a putty wife to love and to talk to, and to move and have my bein' with, I should be a tremendous feller." With that she began and named over all the gals within five miles of thar, and never wunst cum a nigh namin' of herself, and said I orter get one of them. Thar sorter got my dander up, and so I hitched my cheer up close to hern, and shet my eyes, and trembously sed:—

"Sal, you are the very gal I've been hankerin' after for a long time. I luv you all over, from the sole of your head to the foot of your crown, and I don't care who knows it; and if you say so, we'll be joined together in the holy bonds of matrimony, a plubus unum, world without end," sez I; and I felt like I'd throwed up the allygator, I felt so relieved. With that she fetched a sorter scream, and arter a while she sez, sez she:—

"Peter!"

"What's that, Sally?" sez I.

"Yes!" sez she, a hidin' ov her putty face behind her hands. You may depend upon it I felt orful good.

"Glory! Glory!" sez I. "I must hollar, Sal, or I'll burst wide open. Hoorar for hoorar. I kin jump over a ten raller fence, I can do everything that any feller could, would, or orter do." With that I sorter sloshed myself down by her, and clinched the bargain with a kiss—and such a kiss,—talk about yer sugar—talk about yer merriesses—talk about yer blackberry jam—you could n't have got me to come nigh 'em; they would all a tested sour arter that.

Et Sal's daddy hadn't holler'd out it's time for all 'onest folks to be in bed, I do believe I'd staid there all nite. Yer orter seed me when I got home. I pulled dad outer bed and hugged him. I pulled marm outer bed and hugged her. I pulled Aunt Jane outer bed and hugged her. I pulled the nigger servant outer bed and hugged her. I rored, I holler'd. I danced about and cut up more capers than you ever heard tell ov, till dad thot I was crazy, and got a rope to tie me with. "Dad," sez I, "I'm gwine to go for to get married."

"Married!" bawled dad.

"Married!" squeaked marm.

"Married!" squeaked Aunt Jane.

"Yes, married," sez I. "Married all over; joined in wedlock; hooked on for worser or for better, for life and for death, to Sal; I am that very thing; me, Peter Sporum, Esq." With that I up and telled them all about it, from Alpherto Omega. They were all mity pleased and mity willin', and I went to bed as proud as a young rooster with his first spurs.

O, Jehosifat! didn't I feel tremendous good, and kept a gettin' that way all nite. I didn't sleep a wink, but kept rollin' about and a thinkin' till my cup ov happiness was full, pressed down and runnin' over.

DIED.

CYNTHIA PRY, daughter of Rev. Jeremiah Green, and wife of George Penn, died at her residence, in Franklin county, Ky., November 19th, 1860, after a lingering illness, in her 61st year.

Sister Penn was born October 24th, 1800. Was baptised near a half century since, by Rev. Elder Croucher, and received into the fellowship of the Mount Pleasant Church; she was a Christian, and a beloved neighbor. She lived in peace many years with her aged husband, who is left to feel and mourn his loss a short season; but not as those who have none. She long professed an interest in the righteousness of Jesus Christ, and lived a humble follower of the Lamb, and died as she had lived. She left no heirs; to enter upon that rest that remains to the people of God. Sister Penn's funeral was preached by Elder Onan, from these words: "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord," November 20th, at her late residence.

In Nicholasville, Jessamine county, of diptheria, on the 16th ult., Harriet, daughter of John A. and Margaret Willis, aged 8 years.

SOMETHING NEW! Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, Photographs, and Ivorytypes.

H. L. GOODWIN,
TAKES pleasure in informing the public that he has returned to Frankfort, and taken the Gallery of C. A. Clarke, adjoining the Telegraph Office, and that he would be pleased to wait on those wishing perfect likenesses of themselves or friends. He is confident he will be able to please the most fastidious in any kind of picture they may desire, from a life-size portrait to the smallest Daguerreotype or Ambrotype. Also, Daguerreotypes of deceased persons enlarged to the size of Life and Colored in Oil, and satisfaction given.
I am also prepared to make those gems of Photography, the Daguerreotype, which is truly the most durable small picture yet produced.
The Ivorytypes, (made only at this Gallery,) is acknowledged by all to be the most beautiful style of Photographic pictures ever presented to the public. In brilliancy of tone and color, delicacy of finish, correctness of likeness, and durability, it is far superior to the best miniature on Ivory.

FRANKFORT AGENCY

New York Life Insurance Company
At a meeting of the Local Directors of the New York Life Insurance Company, held in the city of Frankfort, Ky., December 4th, 1858, the following was unanimously adopted:
"The undersigned, President and Directors of the Company, have examined the report and exhibit of the New York Life Insurance Company for the half year ending July 1st, 1858, and being satisfied with its prosperity and condition, cordially recommend it to the encouragement and support of the community."
The New York Life Insurance Company has been in existence fourteen years, its capital has attained the sum of $1,500,000.
Invested in State stocks, bonds and mortgages on real estate.
We think it a most safe and profitable mode of investing money. The profits ensure to the benefit of the insured, and have averaged not less than 30 per cent. per annum on the premium paid.
Besides these investments in stock, &c., the law of New York requires as additional security, that $100,000 shall be deposited with the State Comptroller, to meet any lawful demands which the Company may fall to pay.
We invite attention to the nature, objects, and advantages of Life Insurance, as set forth in this Institution.
It will be seen by the above statement that this Company is in a flourishing condition. Those desiring information in regard to the subject of Life Insurance, would do well to call on the Local Agent of the above Company, who will give them any information that may be desired, or for reference apply to either member of the Local Board, all of whom are insured in this office.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers her SOOTHING SYRUP.
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—and allaying ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is sure to regulate the Bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and Benefit and Health to your Infants.
We have just put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, with confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, we are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of the highest commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know" after ten years' experience—and pledge our reputation for the fullness of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.
This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER-FAILING SUCCESS in THOUSANDS OF CASES.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not relieved, speedily end in death. We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY in the world in ALL CASES OF DYSENTERY AND DIARRHEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudice, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE, YES, ABSOLUTELY SURE, to follow this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany every bottle. (One genuine unless the fac simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.)
Sold by Druggists throughout the world.
Principal Office, No. 13, Cedar Street, New York.
Price Only 25 Cents Per Bottle.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in the best sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.
This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.
Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of their functions of nature.
Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessary for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.
CAUTION.—Beware of the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.
Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.
For sale by all Druggists in FRANKFORT.

THIRD VOLUME OF THE KENTUCKY FARMER.

ONLY ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM!!
NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!!

THE SECOND VOLUME of the "KENTUCKY FARMER" closed with the month of June, and the Third Volume commenced in July last. We promised to close the year by giving to the Agriculturalists and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we redeemed that pledge? Have we given you a paper of the THIRD DOLLAR, which was pledged for the KENTUCKY FARMER? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscriptions, and send us ONE MORE additional name for the THIRD VOLUME.
The receipts for the First Volume about paid the expense of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would publish ONE VOLUME whether we obtained a sufficient amount to pay its expenses or not. We redeemed that pledge. The subscription list increased for the Second Volume, and we are like to do so for the Third. Shall we have the kind and continued support of its present patrons, together with their aid in extending its circulation? If so, we promise to do everything in our power to make the paper worthy of a generous Kentucky public.
The KENTUCKY FARMER will still be published monthly, in its present form of sixteen large quarto pages, for ONE DOLLAR per annum, payable invariably in advance. As the small amount charged for the paper will not justify the trouble and expense of collecting subscriptions, no paper will be forwarded unless paid for in advance.
Subscriptions can be forwarded to us by mail at our risk. Letters addressed to us need not be registered. Address
